

TWO HUNDRED AND FOURTEENTH REGIMENT.

THIS regiment, known as the Eighth Union League regiment, was recruited in the city of Philadelphia, and in the counties of Lancaster and Northampton, and was organized in March, 1865, with the following field officers: David B. McKibbin, Colonel; W. H. Harrison, Lieutenant Colonel; Washington M. Worrall, Major. Soon after its organization, it was ordered to the Shenandoah Valley, where, upon its arrival, it reported to General Egan, in command of the department, and was employed in guard and provost duty until July, when it was ordered to Washington, and was engaged in garrisoning the city. In November, Major Worrall, with a detachment, was ordered to duty at Annapolis, Maryland, where he was placed in command of the post. The regiment was finally mustered out of service at Washington, on the 21st of March, 1866.
